Declaration:

I/We declare that the information provided herein is true and correct, and realize that any false information provided will result in cancellation of the application.

I/We also authorize the Iskut Band Council to make requires necessary to process this application

I/We understand that accommodation availability is subject to placement on a waiting list and that the Band does not provide emergency shelter, nor can the Band accommodate "Urgent" referrals from other agencies.

Applications will be kept on the file for 1 year. After one year, the applicant must submit a new application in order to maintain his or her position on the waiting list. A new application is required in order to keep the Band advised of changes for the applicants. Submitting a new application does not mean that the applicant goes to the bottom of the list; the applicant stays in the same place on the list (as long as they have resubmitted by the end of the year deadline).
